This is what it looks like when somebody you love dies in the road.
I wish I could say I've never seen anything like this before.

...blue jeans. You know, I could learn to hate those goddamned things.

I pray that out of this bloodshed and horror, something good and worthwhile will be born. It's hope for that or go crazy.

Agreed.

And damn, that was hard to watch, and listen to the anguish in the man's voice. (Her father?)

And no matter what good comes from this, it won't be enough.

Not even a true Utopia is worth the death of an innocent.

Dear gods, so much blood...

major suckage.

I wonder if the shooter knew her personally, or just picked her out of the crowd of spectators because she wasn't wearing hijab? (in another video just prior to this murder she appears to be wearing a baseball cap).

my heart breaks for her father. this is how revolutionaries are made.

So many dead. And each one of them, one person.
